A one-day conference organised by Lat Blaylock in collaboration with the Diocese of St Albans.

An inspiring and practical one-day conference for Primary Headteachers and RE Co-ordinators. Led by Lat Blaylock the conference will provide practical ideas and strategies for improving teaching and learning in RE.

Participants will be enabled to:

- make progress and gain in confidence as the RE co-ordinator drawing on current legal, educational and professional issues and using St Albans Diocesan RE units.
- improve standards in RE by encouraging high quality teaching and learning strategies in RE across the primary school that both teachers and pupils will enjoy, giving practical classroom ideas;
- apply the theoretical to the practical by working on well thought out ideas during the day linking them to current school practice.
